Is Multnomah County ready to reopen?

Multnomah County leads Oregon in total identified or presumed coronavirus infections, with 1,288 of the state's 5,237 total — representing more than a quarter. For each of the five weeks since late April, people of color have accounted for more than twice as many infections as whites across Multnomah County
Hospital admissions
264, all races

Reported cases
1,288, all races

All
White
Non-white

Testing capacity
Per week, as of May 30

12,400

5,865

Multnomah County

State recommended

Contact tracers
Per 100,000 residents

State recommended — 15

4.2 5.5 7.1 7.8 8

Response
Percentage of cases reported to Multnomah County public health within 24 hours